Job Description
PURPOSE Timber Bay exists to effect new attitudes and behavior as needed in youth. Through a growing faith in Christ and/or by supportive staff relationships, we create a sense of purpose, belonging and community with our youth. We emphasize self-worth, forgiveness, accountability and freedom from shame, with a balanced perspective of authority and freedom. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES An Outreach Worker is a key person in fulfilling our purpose and has an integral role within Timber Bay Community ministry with at-risk youth. Responsibilities of an Outreach Worker focus in four areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Personal Support Development, ● Community Programming Assistance, ● Attending and Participating in Camps and Retreats, ● Business and Ministry Management. Specific responsibilities can include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Building relationships with youth who are at-risk.

2. Assisting the Area Director in building relationships with community professionals like school counselors, police and social workers.
3. Assisting in planning and conducting regular large group events.
4. Developing and leading small groups.
5. Developing individual mentor relationships with youth under the supervision of your Area Director.
6. Attending camp trips and assisting in its programing and supervision.
7. Establishing good communication with your Area Director and other staff members.
8. Raising funds for your salary, benefits and expenses as paid staff.
9. Coordinating and following through on special trips, events or activities as requested by the Area Director.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

Because of the nature of our work with hurting youth, we hire people with a high level of integrity and compassion for at-risk youth. As an Outreach Worker, you come to Timber Bay with:

- Your personal life in order in areas like your relationship with Christ, family relations, social and psychological adjustments.
- A commitment to a local church’s body of believers.
- A care and comfort relating to hurting youth.
- Physically fit enough to do programming in community and camping ministry.
- A desire to continue learning in areas relevant to your ministry to at-risk youth such as Bible study, sexual abuse and family systems, chemical dependency treatment, etc.
- A completed application packet on file with a clear background check and thorough reference check.
- A signed Code of Conduct and Statement of Faith on file.
- A desire to follow through with our training process.

SKILLS, GIFTS AND TALENTS

We prefer the Outreach Worker operate their ministry out the skills, gifts and interests they already possess. People skills, listening skills, leadership skills and being part of work teams are important skills to possess and grow in. While training in fundraising is provided, communicating the ministry vision and need for partners is critical.

ADDITIONAL NOTES

The Outreach Worker will strive to:

- Maintain an image that honors Jesus Christ with professionals in the community. Professional approach to Timber Bay youth means relating to youth in love, with objectivity, with a moral ethic and confidentiality,
- Demonstrate proper use of loving limits and control to maintain programs that honor God and ministers to hurting teens who are often out of control. They will also be attentive to the needs and concerns of the parent(s) of the youth we serve,
- Not only leads the team they develop in their community Timber Bay ministry, but also works in teams with other Area Directors, Outreach Staff, Camp Staff and Central Service Support Staff.
- Be trained in and follow our business management practices, programming and safety protocols and working procedures.

As a deputized organizational fundraiser, the candidate’s salary, expenses and benefits are solely dependent on their personal financial development.

Candidate understands that any employment, both paid or unpaid, which might be offered to me by YIF is "at will" and of indefinite duration, that either I or YIF may terminate that employment at any time, with or without notice and for any reason, that no agreement to the contrary will be recognized by YIF.
